Hello Mindy,

WOW! Would you tell me which piece you have?
And please know that I'm not looking because I want to cause anybody any trouble.
I'm just very hopeful that it (they) have a good home.
Thank you for taking time to contact me!

Hi Judah,

Did you rent a storage unit at one time and where? That is how I have some of your items. I honestly just want to return them to the right person. If it is you, your work is beautiful!

Mindy

I have several pieces. I am not looking for anything. I just want them returned to their rightful artist. My mother was an artist. There are pieces that she painted that disappeared over the years. I would love to have them back.

DEAR GOD! I'm sorry, but I'm shaking, sobbing, in a place I've never been before! NEVER! All these years, I NEVER thought that ANY of those works... I'd all but accepted that they'd been thrown in dumpsters. Mindy.... Ms. Brock, this is more a movie production in my head right now than reality.

Yes, they were in a storage unit. And how they got there is a convoluted history of theft, put into the unit and then ignored. 50 years of my entire life were in that storage unit, documents, furniture, old books, many autographed by authors, some in Old German, many college text books, collections of my personal writings, journals... and yes, many paintings, most of which of the Hudson Valley, the Shawangunks, Downing Park history.

I'm in disbelief at the moment, and shock, to be honest. It's as if some Angel just stepped out of a cloud. Sorry if I'm rambling.

If you'd like to talk about this, please feel free to call me! And if it's an expense for you, I'm MORE than happy to call you!

I can be reached by "voice" at: 518-564.05.17

A voice and text number: 518-564.04.17

Either at your convenience, any time of the day or night.

As I say, and I know you understand this sentiment, I always just hoped that they were some-where where they were appreciated for the scenery, that they meant something to somebody. THANK YOU. Today I know they have been. THANK YOU.

Again, you can send more e-mails if you prefer, or you can call at ANY time.

THANK YOU! OH, THANK YOU SO VERY VERY MUCH!

Jude (Judah) Kessler

Hi Judah,

I would be happy to call you tomorrow. I will explain how and why I have the pictures. As I said my mother was an artist and I have a very strong appreciation for art. I will make sure you get your pictures back.

I am not around in the morning, but I can call you tomorrow afternoon if that is okay.

Mindy

DEAR Mindy, please, at your leisure, at your convenience. I'm still in a bit of delightful shock and ever so grateful. Meanwhile, do have a wonderful evening. If I could send you even a part of the joy you've brought to me today, you'd be in blissful glory.

Thank you...

Judah
